Message from National General Legal Counsel

It's our great honor to have JCIHK's advisor Bernard Chan GBS, JP to share tips of successful leader as this issue's feature story. Also heartfelt thank to PNP Paul Yin for sharing his memories of JCI from the seventies.

This issue of Habour Lights is more than just a magazine, but a time capsule that has integrated the best of national and local chapters projects and captured all our happy moments in the first quarter. Each article is full of memories, and acts like a carbon footprint of every member's growing path. When we look back in years time, we will still cherish the moments and be proud of being part of JCIHK.

It is indeed not an easy task to coordinate articles from National Board and 19 Chapters. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the team who worked behind the scene and contributed many hours of hardwork in collaborating and editing articles, including National Publication Director Jasper Ng and Editor Senator Yvonne Wong. Most important but not the least, thank you for your kind support to Harbour Lights.

Message From National President

"I believe we're gonna shine!"

Each and every time, a new generation has risen up and done what's needed to be done for the community. Today, we are called once more – and it is time for our generation to answer the call!

We are all motivated by a single, simple, powerful idea, that we might play a small part in building a better world.

We choose to extend our hand to the people in the forgotten corners of this world and end poverty.

We choose to come together to save this planet and promote the environmental sustainability.

We choose to unite corporations in Hong Kong and promote the goals of United Nations Millennium Development Goals.

We choose to bridge different cultures and bringing our JC members around the world to visit Shanghai Expo.

We choose to motivate the young people to create positive change in the community and share our thoughts in Change Maker Forum.

We choose to promote Hong Kong and bidding to organize the 2012 JCI Asia Pacific Conference in Hong Kong!

Now the world will watch and remember what we do here – what we do with this moment.

I know how hard it is to make it all happened. It comes with little sleep, no pay, and a lot of sacrifice. Our financial resources, talent, and ability are clearly inadequate to meet the needs of a hungry and confused world. But we, as JC members, are willing to sacrifice our time, our energy and our commitment to serve the community! I am proud of each and everyone of you!

Be Proud! Be a JC Leader! Love is all around. Let's shine!

Interview with Bernard Charnwut Chan, GBS, JP

The Age We Proud of

What kind of qualities should a leader possess and feel proud of?

You can only feel proud as a leader if you and your team succeed – that is if you all accomplish something worthwhile. To do that, a leader must have a vision or an idea of what needs to be done. He has to be able to communicate it and inspire people. You have to motivate people, and you have to win their confidence. You have to keep a very clear idea of your plans and priorities; if you make mistakes or keep changing your mind, you will lose people's confidence. In particular, you need to be able to persuade people. It takes leadership to convince people who might have different interests to work together for a common goal. You could say leadership is the ability to convince people to do things they would maybe rather not do.

Can you share an incident which you feel proud of?

I am proud of the Caring Company movement, which I started up in my role as chairperson of the Hong Kong Council for Social Service. The idea was to bridge the gap between the corporate sector on the one hand and the social services and the disadvantaged people they serve. Some people in both business and welfare circles were skeptical about it at first. In 2002, 259 companies were part of the scheme, and now we have over 2,000 and some 400 service agencies partnering with them. So that has been a success. Having said that, the gap – the distrust – between those two parts of society is still there. People's expectations have risen, and companies have to ask if caring is enough. I think the next stage is for the business world to recognize that it has deeper social responsibilities.

Do you feel proud of being a Hong Kong citizen? Why? Is it possible to give some examples to illustrate?

Yes, I am definitely proud to be from Hong Kong. You really appreciate what makes our city special after you come back from a trip overseas. We all know Hong Kong isn't perfect, but I am very grateful whenever I come back and notice how orderly things are, how people respect rules, and how things work well. Things happen quickly, people and organizations are efficient and professional. We forget sometimes how lucky we are. We take a lot of things like high standards of work and administration, and of fairness and openness, for granted.

How can young people learn to be leaders and feel proud of themselves?

You have to listen to people and try to look at things from their perspectives before you make decisions. Listen to different opinions. Leadership is about influencing and motivating people. That means winning their trust, their faith and their confidence. If you can do that and you combine that skill with a vision and you and your team succeed in doing something worthwhile, something that helps other people and impacts their lives positively, then you can be proud.

60 years of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong
The Ages that we are proud of

1976 National President Paul Yin, SBS, JP

70s

I still remember the precious and enjoyable moment of running the bidding program for the National Convention. We went together with Miss Hong Kong, Mary Cheung in mid 1970s. It really helped to promote image and enhance mutual understanding of Hong Kong to countries of the world. In 1970s, Manufacturing was the largest share of the economy, led by textiles. At that time, Hong Kong is one of British Colony.

There is actually not much difference between the Jaycees in 1970s and 2010. They are very harmonious, full of friendship and still working on meaningful projects. At the 60th anniversary, I am expecting to have more great projects in Leadership Development, Community Development, Internationalism and Business Development.

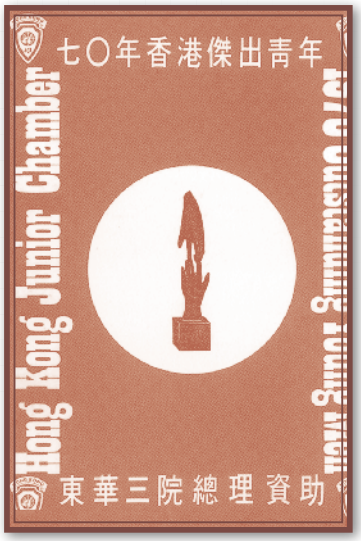
▲ His Excellency the Governor Sir Murray Maclehose sent his message to welcome the delegates of JCI Regional Conference.



▲ The TOYP was first introduced by Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1970. His Excellency The Governor was the Patron.

▲ The junk on the Logo of the JCI Conference already told that it was held in Hong Kong.

Bidding for the 2012 JCI ASPAC HONG KONG

Delegates from JCI Hong Kong who attended the JCI ASPAC might often have a question in their mind – "What a fascinating and exciting event JCI ASPAC is, how come we didn't consider hosting such international event in Hong Kong?" This has been unanswered over the past 30 years until this year, when we have decided to bid for the hosting right of 2012 JCI ASPAC to be held in Hong Kong. With the support from JCI Honorary Advisor Senator Sonny Yu, HKJC Foundations as well as Past National Presidents and under the leadership of National President Senator Gene Tang, we have started stepping forward to this 30-years dream, and we are going to bid for the 2012 JCI ASPAC Hosting Right in coming 2010 JCI ASPAC Singapore in June.

A very experienced Jaycee, Senator Polsion Leung, has taken the role of the 2012 JCI Hong Kong ASPAC Bidding Chairman and has formed a strong ASPAC Bidding Team to work on the challenging but fruitful bidding process.

Chief Advisors	:	JCI Hon Advisor Senator Sonny Yu
Advisors	:	PNP Senator Andrew Wong, PNP Senator Eric Tang
Bidding Chairman	:	Senator Polsion Leung
Deputy Chairman	:	Benjamin Kong
		Senator Raymond Li
		Senator Kristine Chung
Sub-com Chairman	:	Maranda Ma (Bidding Party)
		Senator Brian Kwan (Hong Kong Night)
		Lizzy To (VIP Luncheon)
		Peter Lau (Trade Booth)
		Isaac Yip (Internal Promotion)
		Ferris Ma (Gift and Souvenir)

Externally the Bidding team have paid visits to several countries and regions such as Taiwan, Japan, Singapore and Philippines to promote our bidding for 2012 JCI ASPAC hosting, while internally we have launched several promotional campaigns including the ASPAC Bidding Party and Video Creation Oscar Award Presentations aiming to arouse the awareness among members of JCI Hong Kong on our bidding.

While in coming JCI Singapore ASPAC, we need intense involvement by a large size of Hong Kong delegates during the Opening Ceremony, bidding presentation in the General Assembly as well as during the Hong Kong Night. Our slogan will be "Great Fun, Nice Food @ Hong Kong!" (Chinese Version: "好玩，好食 – 在香港！"), and we plan to have Cantonese, Mandarin, Japanese and Korean version as well to make it understandable by all delegates in the Asia and the Pacific region. Let's imagine what the scenario will be if we have a sea of Hong Kong delegates forming a closely packed "human tunnel" linking to the entrance to the convention hall or grand function room for GA, and keep shouting our slogans in a dramatic and rhythmic pattern. We hope to demonstrate our strong unity, passionate enthusiasm, warm hospitality and cheerful smiles to overseas delegates around the Asia and the Pacific region.

Last but not least, the success of our bid for the hosting right of 2012 JCI ASPAC not only just accomplish our 30-years' dream, but will mark it as one of the most memorable and fascinating moment ever in our JC life, especially for those who have involvement in either the bidding process or even the ASPAC Conference Organizing Committee.

Please support JCI Hong Kong's Bid for 2012 JCI ASPAC!

Benjamin Kong
Deputy Chairman

TDC Arena "The Trainers"

To provide a platform for baby trainers to practice and enrich their training skill, the Training and Development Council (TDC) has organized the TDC Arena "The Trainers" on March 30, 2010.

Four baby trainers Parlett Chang, Boy Leung, Simon Wong and Fausta Lee, with the guidance of mentor CNT Tony Tsang, had team-up and conducted a training「停停、聽聽」on the evening. What are the different kinds of listener? What is a good listener? The trainers have delivered the basis of listening through sharing, interactive games and exercises. All participants enjoyed and had learned the key elements of effective communications.

▲ Everyone enjoyed the TDC Arena

At the end of the training session, our experienced trainers, CNT Senator Tony Tsang, CNT Senator Beatrice Kwong and CNT Senator Lydia Chiu were invited to give comment to their performance. They highlighted the strengths of each trainer and the specific areas that they could seek for improvements. Participants have also gained tips on making a good presentation from the valuable feedback from the experienced trainers.

Victorians are having fun more than ever!

The inauguration on January 25, 2010 has marked a good start for this special 60th year of Victoria Junior Chamber. Being witnessed by Legislative Councilor Hon. Starry Lee, all Board members swore to take up the most challenging and yet fun-filled roles in our VJC life!

To kick off our busy schedule of the year, National General Legal Counsel Senator Benny Lam, President Boy Leung, Immediate Past President Winnie Chan and Vice President Connie Woo travelled to Osaka to attend one of our sister chapters - JCI Osaka's 60th Anniversary on March 25, 2010. Kowloon Junior Chamber 45th Anniversary

Under the batons of the Past Presidents, Kowloon Junior Chamber has made significant developments in the past years. On 31 March 2010, KJC has a Leadership Development Workshop "6 Senses for Project Management" and talked about how to apply the senses of story, meaning, empathy, design, play and symphony on managing a successful project. Speaker Senator Yvonne Wong discussed common accidents on event day with participants and suggested ways to avoid. Members are well equipped for its theme projects 2010 Money Management Award and Children Chinese Calligraphy Competition in coming June and July.

The 2010 Money Management Award aims to enhance the public attention to the new generation's earlier life-long planning of living and health care expense, and to encourage the young elites to manage their financial profiles and investments actively and start at early age.

Another remarkable event is the 45th Anniversary Ball of Kowloon Junior Chamber. The Ball is going to hold at the Golden Mile Holiday Inn Hotel on 3 July 2010. With a view to making the dignified event a great success, we are working hard to produce glamorous and impressive programme. Let's keep our finger crossed and witness the remarkable moment of KJC.

To kick off 2010, Island Junior Chamber has hosted its inauguration ceremony on January 2nd, 2010. On that day, over 40 Islanders and guests witnessed the inauguration of the 2010 Board of Director of Island JC.

Following the happiness of the inauguration of Island Junior Chamber was the "Year of the Tiger Bonanza cum Senior Members Gathering" on February 20th, 2010. Again there were over 40 people joined the gathering and almost half of the participants joined with their better half.

Besides our gathering, we have also teamed up with Breakthrough 23 and hosted "23 Family Learning Fun Project" together. The project aims to provide a day of education outside classroom. Beneficiaries are students with Special Learning Disability (SLD) and the task of the day was simple – tour around Ocean Park and understand the importance of ocean environmental protection as well as sustainable environment. The event attracted around 100 students with SLD and who are also the member of the "Hong Kong Association for Special Learning Disabilities (HKASLD)". The event got good media coverage.

These are just the beginning and we are looking forward for more fun and work in the coming months, so stay tuned!

EKJC – Post 80's Level Up Seminar

"Post-80s phenomenon" is a hot topic recently. It is so unfair that some people would have negative feelings towards young people. With support from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University ("PolyU"), East Kowloon Junior Chamber organized a career seminar "Post 80's Level Up" for its final-year students so that they can better equip themselves for their future career. The seminar was successfully held on 25th March 2010 and as one of the PolyU's Career Week events.

We had Mr. Li Chan-wing (Famous Former Anchor) and Ms. Juliana Yang (Founder of Makeup Forever Academy) to share their experience with the students so that they can prepare themselves to level up or excel in future. Mr. Li talked about the communication skills while Ms. Yang talked about personal image and make-up skills. There were 150 young people joined the seminar.
