2. Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee has been appointed by National President Senator Daryl LIN to assess the qualifications and eligibility of the candidates and present a report to the General Assembly of the 61st National Convention. Apart from me serving as the Chairman, the Nomination Committee includes FIVE (5) other members:

- 2002 National President Senator Tony CHAN
- 2006 National President Senator Dr James TSUI, MH
- 2013 National President Senator Paul WU
- 2019 National President Senator Zenith LIN
- 2023 National President Senator Kenneth YU

3. Eligibility and Qualification of Candidates

The procedure for electing 2027 Elective National Officers is conducted in accordance with the Articles of Association and By-laws of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China. All candidates are required to observe and comply with these clauses.

The qualifications for candidates of the elective & appointed national officers are contained in JCIHK By-law 12-4. Specific Requirements for NP, NEVPs, NVPs, NGLC, NSG, NHT and NDs are contained in By-laws 12-9-3, 12-11-2, 12-12-2, 12-10-2, 12-13-2, 12-14-2 and 12-15-2 respectively.

EIGHT (8) of the candidates are not eligible for the offices they are standing for election.

The following National Vice President Candidates fail to meet a specific requirement under By- law 12-12-2 (C), i.e. the candidate shall be a current member of the National Board of Directors or shall have been a member of the National Board of Directors for at least one year.

- SIT, Yuen Man (JCI Victoria)
- YIM, Hin (JCI Island)
- KWAN, Siu Ching (JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes)
- SHUM, Ho Yin (JCI Lion Rock)
- LEE, Man Ho (JCI Sha Tin)
- LEUNG, Hoi Ying (JCI City Lady)

The following National Honorary Treasurer Candidate fails to meet a specific requirement under By-law 12-14-2 which further refer to By-law 12-12-2 (C), i.e. the candidate shall be a current member of the National Board of Directors or shall have been a member of the National Board of Directors for at least one year.

- TSANG, Oi Sz (JCI Sha Tin)

The following National Director Candidate fails to meet a specific requirement under By-law 12-15-2 (B), i.e. the candidate shall be a current LOM Officer or have been a LOM Officer for at least one (1) year.

- TANG, Yi Lam (JCI City Lady)

Notwithstanding their failure to meet the specific requirements or qualifications, the above EIGHT (8) candidates may seek for election or appointment by way of a waiver in accordance with By-law 12-4-9. The Nomination Committee recommends such waiver be granted subject to the approval of the General Assembly by a two-third (2/3 majority) of the votes.

1. Junior Chamber affairs at Local, National & International levels
2. Parliamentary procedures
3. Articles of Association and By-laws of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China
4. Duties of the respective offices and problem-solving skills
5. Community Affairs

The performance of individual candidates was graded in accordance with the following scale:

i. Excellent
ii. Very Good
iii. Good
iv. Fair
v. Poor
vi. Unsatisfactory

Appendix 1 shows each candidate's interview results in their respective areas. It was also posted on JCI Hong Kong, China Web Site (www.jcihk.org) for general members' reference on or before 26th September 2026.

The Nomination Committee is deeply encouraged by the confidence and enthusiasm demonstrated by this year's candidates—qualities that ignite inspiration and strengthen peer leadership. Their strong problem-solving abilities reflect great potential to drive meaningful impact for JCI Hong Kong, China. To further elevate their leadership journey, the Committee highlights opportunities to expand awareness of emerging youth-centric issues, deepen understanding of JCI's evolving international initiatives, and strengthen familiarity with JCIHK's Articles of Association and By-laws. In particular, enhancing knowledge of parliamentary procedures will be invaluable, equipping candidates to lead with clarity, fairness, and authority. This skill not only ensures effective governance at the national level but also empowers local chapters to operate with greater confidence and cohesion.

As management teams worldwide navigate dynamic challenges—from shifting youth engagement trends to innovative frameworks for community impact—adaptability and forward-thinking innovation have become indispensable. The Nomination Committee encourages candidates to embrace continuous learning and development, as these practices will serve as the foundation for their growth as informed, agile leaders. With determination and dedication, they will not only build a capable and inspiring team but also guide JCI Hong Kong, China toward impactful success in 2027. We look forward with confidence to their journey ahead, knowing that their passion, strengthened by knowledge and collective action, will continue to advance the Jaycee movement and empower future generations of leaders.

6. Closure of Nomination

In accordance with By-law 12-6-3, all nominations were closed FORTY-FIVE (45) days before the commencement of the National Convention.

7. Conclusion

Taking this opportunity, I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to Nomination Committee Members, 2002 NP Senator Tony Chan, 2006 NP Senator Dr. James TSUI, MH, 2013 National President Senator Paul WU, 2019 National President Senator Zenith LIN and 2023 National President Senator Kenneth YU, for their time, effort and contribution. I would also like to thank the National Secretariat and Administrative Team, Chamber Office Staffs for their support.

My sincere appreciation goes to all candidates for their courage and devotion in demonstrating themselves as passionate young leaders who are committed to serve JCI Hong Kong, China in 2027 as well as their cooperation during the nomination process. I believe under the leadership of National President Candidate Christy CHAN, JCI Hong Kong, China and 21 LOMs will have another fruitful year.

Last but not least, I wish to express my sincere thanks to the National Convention Director Dixon KWOK and the Organizing Committee and Advisors of 61st National Convention for the assistance they have rendered to the Nomination Committee.

I wish the candidates every success in the election.

Yours in JC Spirit,

Rafael WONG
Nomination Committee Chairman
Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, China
